Knights Templar Observe Easter

Easter Sunday was fittingly observed by Coeur de Lion Commandery, Knights Templar, of this city, at the Second Presbyterian church. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and it was one of the most impressive and delightful religious services ever held in this city.

The members of Coeur de Lion Commandery, in full uniform, marched into the church, headed by Eminent Commander C. M. Thomas and Chaplain C. A. McMullan, while the choir rendered the beautiful processionals, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Eminent Commander Thomas and Chaplain McMullan occupied the chairs upon the rostrum and the religious exercises of the order were conducted by the latter in an impressive manner. During these services the following musical numbers were rendered:

Organ Voluntary — "Chorus of Angels."

Antiphon — "Christ The Lord is Risen To-day," by Dudley Buck.

Gloria Patria.

Solo — "Resurrection," by Harry Rowe Sheeley, with violin obligato.

"Behold the Risen King," by Romaninsky.

Organ Affortory.

Recessional — "All Saints."

Sir Knight Rev. Jos. S. Malone

preached the sermon, taking for his subject "The Resurrection," and his effort was highly appreciated and enjoyed by the large congregation that crowded the church. It was an eloquent, strong and forceful sermon.

The singing by the choir, under the direction of Sir Knight Dr. Frank Fithian, was pronounced by all present to be the best ever heard in our city by a church choir. The solo mentioned above was sung by Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland, and her bird-like soprano voice never sounded sweeter than on this occasion. The violin obligato was skillfully played by Miss Lucille Price, who is an artist upon this instrument.

Miss Frances Johnson presided at the organ in her usual artistic manner.

After the most delightful program was finished the large audience was dismissed by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford with the benediction.

The Wheat Market.

Drouth in some of the principal sections of the wheat belt caused the market to go up last week, but this was counteracted by reports by the Government to the effect that the wheat has not yet been injured and the crop can stand even another week of no rain without injury. The market opened well the first of the week.

Turnpike Improvements.

Last year the Fiscal Courts of Bourbon and Fayette counties reconstructed the Maysville & Lexington pike from Lexington to Paris with graded macadam, which was rolled with 20-ton engine rollers and when finished was pronounced by automobilists to be unapproached by any like road in the world. This year the Bourbon Fiscal Court will remodel the road from Paris to the Nicholas county line, making this stretch of road from Lexington to that point a distance of 27 miles.

The Paris and North Middletown and Paris and Little Rock turnpikes will be improved in like manner. The county last year expended the sum of $35,000 upon her 325 miles of turnpikes and this year will only expend a little less than $30,000.

Pure Food Display.

Calvin Morgan Found Dying.

One of the most startling tragedies which has shocked the people of Lexington in many years occurred Sunday evening when Calvin Morgan, a nephew of Gen. John H. Morgan, and one of the wealthiest and best known young men of Lexington, was found lying in bed at his home with a bullet hole in his head, while a smoking pistol lay on the pillow beside him.

It has been Mr. Morgan's custom to keep the pistol under his pillow, and it is not known whether the shot was fired with suicidal intent or the pistol was accidentally discharged during Mr. Morgan's attempt to place it under his pillow before going to sleep for the night. He was unconscious when found by his mother, the only other person in the house, and was attracted by the sound of the pistol. Mr. Morgan died two hours later, without regaining consciousness.

Calvin Morgan was 35 years of age and was a son of Col. Calvin Morgan, a brother of Gen. John H. Morgan, and who himself served with distinction throughout the war in the famous command of his distinguished brother. His father died many years ago, from whom young Morgan inherited an ample fortune, which enabled him to be free from business cares, and to gratify his tastes in whatever bent they turned. He had been a cripple for years from paralysis and walked with two canes, but was at all times attended by a colored servant.

Distinction Has Many Channels

for expression. Your clown finds it with bells and violent colors. So do tailormen. Instead of bells, they hang on appendages and inflict all manner of arbitrary "stunts" in the design of a garment. Also the violent colors. Upon neither do depend for their distinction. They find it through dignified innovations in the design of a garment; through expressive tailoring which leave the innovations without offense to good taste. Lastly, College Brand Clothes find distinction through fabrics which are never violent in color or design yet ever new, impressive and perhaps a bit daring. Now, you understand why we give the College Brand Clothes the best our shop affords.
